3. When you get to the NetLibrary page, search for the desired title.

The screenshot shows the NetLibrary eAudiobook Center interface. At the top, the browser title is "NetLibrary - eAudiobook Center - Mozilla Firefox" and the address bar shows "http://www.netlibrary.com/Centers/AudiobookCenter/". The page header includes "NetLibrary" and "Welcome to the Scranton Public Library eContent Collection". A banner for the "NEW NETLIBRARY MEDIA CENTER" promotes "EASIER, FASTER AUDIOBOOK DOWNLOADS" with a "LEARN MORE" link. Below this is a search section titled "Search for eAudiobooks" with a "Keyword" input field, a language dropdown set to "English", and a "Search" button. Underneath, the "Limit Search By (optional)" section includes dropdowns for "Duration", "Year", and "Format" (set to "All"). On the right side, there is a "List All eAudiobooks" section with a "Browse by Subject" list containing categories like "Arts & Entertainment (2)", "Biography & Memoir (48)", "Business (61)", "Children's Classics (22)", "Children's Fiction (15)", "Christian Fiction (132)", "Classics (144)", "Fiction & Literature (266)", "Government & Politics (3)", "Health & Medicine (3)", "Historical Fiction (62)", "History (44)", "Horror (9)", "Humor (4)", "Lectures (54)", "Mystery & Suspense (454)", "Nonfiction (57)", "Philosophy (1)", "Popular Fiction (215)", and "Popular Nonfiction (29)". At the bottom, the "Featured Titles" section displays "The Least Likely Bride" and "Trouble Man". The Windows taskbar at the bottom shows the "start" button, several application icons, and the system tray with the time "9:21 AM".

4. When you find a title you wish to download, click on Download this eAudiobook.
